OFFICIAL MATCHDAY PROGRAMME

MAURICIO POCHETTINO

Good afternoon and welcome back to our home.

Our last game here left me extremely pleased following an impressive 4-0 win against Crystal Palace.

We started in exactly the fashion I want to see from the players – we were so aggressive and showed good intensity in our approach from the first whistle, our quality shone through and we were rewarded with four goals before half-time to help us on our way to an important victory in the league.

We are currently in the middle of a busy period with seven games in 21 days and already we are experiencing many kinds of emotions both high and low.

We got our Champions League campaign underway last week with a point in Greece although we all recognise we were presented with a great chance to have taken all three. It was frustrating that we were unable to hold onto our half-time lead, particularly as I felt our performance increased in the second half and we finished the stronger of the two teams. We must take the positives from the game and the point does give us a platform to build from as we look to qualify from the group.

"THE KEY IS TO REMAIN CALM AND FOCUSSED. I'M SURE WE WILL NAVIGATE OUR WAY THOUGH THIS SPELL"

Unfortunately, our two most recent domestic games have both ended in disappointment against Leicester City and Colchester United and that is something we are all determined to address quickly. Despite dominating for large spells in both games, we came away with nothing for our efforts and we accept that it is results that we will ultimately be judged on.

This afternoon we welcome Ralph Hasenhüttl and his Southampton team to our stadium. It is obviously a club I know well and admire following my time there, however today there is no room for sentiment. As with every Premier League fixture, we know we will have to work hard if we are to come away with the win.

As always, when we experience disappointing moments, we know the key is to remain calm in our minds and focussed. As a group we have been through these situations before and I am sure we will navigate our way through this spell too.

Your incredible support helps push the players on, so please get behind them today as you always do as we bid to return to winning ways this afternoon.

Enjoy the game.

SUPER SUB

As part of an occasional feature, Andy Greeves takes at a look back at a match in which a substitute has made a real impact for us. Today he remembers Ronny Rosenthal's hat-trick in our 6-2 FA Cup fifth round replay victory at Southampton in 1995.

Our FA Cup adventure in 1994/95 began with a 3-0 third round victory over non-league side Altringham at White Hart Lane on 7 January, 1995 and a 4-1 triumph against Sunderland at the old Roker Park in round four a few weeks later. Southampton meanwhile dispatched Southend United and Luton Town to set up a fifth-round meeting with us in N17 on 18 February.

Jurgen Klinsmann, who scored 29 times in 50 appearances in his debut season with us that term, put us in front after 22 minutes of the tie. The German striker raced onto a flicked header from Teddy Sheringham before lofting the ball beyond Bruce Grobbelaar in the Saints goal. Less than a minute later though, Justin Edinburgh was adjudged to have fouled Jeff Kenna in our penalty area and Matt Le Tissier converted the resulting spot-kick.

Neil Heaney was prevented from giving Southampton the lead just before the half-time interval, as Sol Campbell made a last-ditch tackle to deny him at the far post. A few minutes after the break, Klinsmann struck Southampton's goalframe while we spurned a number of other chances during the second half as the match finished in a 1-1 draw.

Southampton went ahead after just six minutes of the replay, played at the Hampshire club's former home, the Dell, on 1 March. Neil Shipperley got on the end of Jason Dodd's sweeping cross and poked the ball beyond goalkeeper Ian Walker with his left foot. Five minutes before the break Dean Austin brought down Heaney in the box and Le Tissier did what he always did from 12 yards and stepped up to score from the spot once again.

Two minutes before the break, manager Gerry Francis introduced his first substitute of the evening as Ronny Rosenthal came on to replace Stuart Nethercott. The Israeli international set us on the road to recovery 12 minutes into the second-half, sweeping a Nick Barmby cross past his former Liverpool teammate Grobbelaar. Two minutes later, 'Rocket Ronny' cut in off the wing and fired in a powerful shot to make it 2-2, with that effort eventually forcing extra-time.

Rosenthal's night of nights was completed 11 minutes into the added half hour as he scored his second goal from outside of the box to complete his hat-trick.

"You just don't expect to come off the sub's bench and score three times," Rosenthal told the media after the match. "They are the best three goals I have ever scored and they will be remembered as beautiful ones."

Our emphatic 6-2 victory was rounded off with goals from Sheringham, Barmby and Darren Anderton, with Rosenthal's triple described later described by Francis as the most "emphatic hat-trick" he had ever seen.

"It's one of those matches that will always live in my memory," reflected Rosenthal. "Everything went for me that night. Throughout my career, I always knew I had the ability to produce something special. I managed to have at least one game with all my club sides where I did something really memorable… be it the hat-trick against Southampton for Spurs, the hat-trick on my full debut for Liverpool."

Rosenthal netted 11 times in 100 appearances for us between 1994 and 1997 while he also turned out for the likes of Maccabi Haifa, Club Brugge, Standard Liege, Liverpool and Watford during his career. He scored 11 goals in 60 senior internationals for Israel before retiring from playing in 1999.

After our 6-2 victory at Southampton, our FA Cup journey that season continued with a 2-1 win at Liverpool on 11 March, before we bowed out of the competition at the semi-final stage, going down to a 4-1 defeat to Everton at Elland Road, Leeds on 9 April. Rosenthal was introduced as an 84th-minute substitute in that game but was unable to produce a repeat of his heroics from the bench witnessed at the Dell a month earlier.

Paulo Gazzaniga

Paulo Gazzaniga has always been ready for the call.

Whether it was the seismic one from Southampton in 2012 that first made his dream of Premier League football a reality, the common one from his former Saints team-mate Oriol Romeu to accept his invitation to come over for dinner or the sudden one from Mauricio Pochettino to let him know he was needed at short notice to keep goal at Leicester last week, the humble Argentine has been there with a willing answer.

That readiness, coupled with a can-do attitude, has helped the towering goalkeeper get to where he is today.

Released by Spanish outfit Valencia when he was a teenager, he fought against adversity to beat an unorthodox path via Gillingham – then in League Two – and Southampton to get here to Spurs in 2017.

Now, he's a valuable member of our squad with Champions League and international experience under his belt, driving Hugo Lloris on every day to the benefit of both parties.

"LIKE I ALWAYS SAY, IT'S ALL ABOUT PUSHING YOURSELF, TRAINING, KEEPING A GOOD MENTALITY AND NEVER GIVING UP. "

"Like I always say, it's all about pushing yourself, training, keeping a good mentality and never giving up. That's why I am here now," said the 27-year-old, who made his first two appearances of the season against Leicester and Colchester this week.

"Always I've tried to have the same mentality – to work – and that has helped. When I got the chance to join Southampton, the mentality was to grow up because when I signed I was so young and the only thing I could do was train and keep improving.

"In 2017 I signed for Spurs, but still I always tried to push – first myself and, after, the other keepers here. We have healthy competition, we are working well and I feel good."

Paulo is used to the battle for supremacy. Competition for the gloves was fierce throughout his time at the Saints with the likes of Kelvin Davis, Artur Boruc and Fraser Forster all on the books at various stages of his tenure on the south coast. In fact, aside from a prolonged run in the team in his first six months at St Mary's, Paulo often found himself cast in the role of number two or number three stopper, even playing for their Under-21s against us on a handful of occasions to get match minutes under his belt.

"I joined Southampton in 2012 when I was 20 years old. It's a long time ago but it has gone quickly!" smiled Paulo at Hotspur Way this week, casting his mind back to how he first emerged onto the top-flight stage. "Southampton were the club that trusted me when I signed for them and of course I'm grateful because they gave me that start in the Premier League.

"Since I was a child I'd wanted to play in the Premier League and it just happened quickly for me at that time. I signed for Gillingham and after one year I was playing in the top division. I remember I was doing pre-season with Gillingham… when we finished the season before, I'd heard some rumours about a transfer but when they called that summer, the deal was done and I couldn't believe it because I was living the dream!

"Southampton gave me that opportunity and even more so when Mauricio, Toni (Jimenez, goalkeeping coach) and all of the staff arrived with us there. It was much easier and I could grow more. It was a good time working with them but afterwards, when I found I couldn't have the continuity I wanted at Southampton, I decided to go on loan (to Rayo Vallecano for the 2016/17 season) and that was good for me."

"IT'S NEVER EASY WHEN YOU PLAY FOR THE FIRST TIME IN A LONG TIME BUT IT'S ALWAYS ABOUT THE MENTALITY AND BEING PREPARED."

Paulo Gazzaniga

Of course, Mauricio made the move to north London in the summer of 2014 and two years ago, had no hesitation in returning to the south coast to sign Paulo, who coincidentally hails from the same Argentine town as the manager himself. Since the goalkeeper's arrival, he has again worked his way up the pecking order and is now firmly established as the chief competitor to Club captain Hugo. But, typically of his friendly and hospitable nature, he still keeps in contact with a number of his former Saints team-mates.

"I cannot name everyone because if I forget someone it won't be good!" he laughed. "I keep in touch with Oriol Romeu probably the most.

TH04_18-23_Big Interview.indd 22 25/09/2019 15:10

Sometimes when he comes to London I text him to come and meet up for dinner at my house. I prefer to host friends at home rather than go out."

After a successful 2018/19 campaign with us that saw Paulo make his Champions League debut against PSV and earn his first call-up to the Argentina national team, he was back in action in last Saturday's 2-1 defeat at the King Power Stadium after Hugo was called away over the birth of his third child.

"Congratulations to Hugo and his family. It's nice – another child, another Lloris in the world!" smiled Paulo. "It's never easy when you play for the first time in a long time but it's always about the mentality and being prepared. I have Toni who is always pushing me to try to give my best. If the gaffer or Toni sees I'm not focused or not concentrated, they try to drive me on because it's the mentality they want me to have. Especially as a goalkeeper, you never know when it's going to be your time. That's why I'm very grateful to them because they keep pushing and pushing me and that's very good for me when I have to play."

Hugo is expected to return in goal this afternoon as we look to respond to the setback at Leicester against Paulo's former club. Regardless of who lines up, Paulo says the squad's attention is streamlined on claiming maximum points again.

"Every victory is important so we have to be focused on the next game, always thinking about the three points and then see at the end of the season where we are in the table," he said. "The most important thing is to always concentrate on the next game, like this one against Southampton.

"We have to be focused on our jobs. Of course, we have to fix the things that we have to fix to get the results and performances we want, but we have to keep that winning mentality. That's the key. When things are not going great and you lose points, people will talk, but that's normal in football because it changes from one day to another. We just have to focus on our work and keep believing in ourselves."

SCENE SETTER

Previewing this afternoon's Premier League clash with Southampton, looking at the form guide, previous encounters and a whole host of vital statistics…

DID YOU KNOW?

Both teams have scored in each of our last seven Premier League meetings against Southampton.

2014
A superb fightback saw us win 3-2 having trailed 2-0 to goals from Jay Rodriguez and Adam Lallana. Christian Eriksen hit a double, with Gylfi Sigurdsson netting a last-minute winner.
2017
A Boxing Day hat-trick from Harry Kane gave us the platform for this 5-2 win, Dele and Heung-Min Son also scoring.
2004
Jermain Defoe's hat-trick set us on the way to a 5-1 win, Fredi Kanoute and Robbie Keane also on target with Peter Crouch scoring for the visitors.
2000
Our only seven-goal haul in a Premier League game. We led 4-2 at half-time and added three more after the break. Steffen Iversen leading the way with a hat-trick.
1993
A crazy game as we scored four second-half goals in four minutes and 48 seconds through Teddy Sheringham (2), Nick Barmby and Darren Anderton. We won 4-2.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS

v Southampton

This afternoon, we take on the Saints for the 41st time in the Premier League having won 21 of our previous 40 encounters. We take a look at five of those successes…

HEAD TO HEAD

We have won seven of our last eight Premier League matches against Southampton, losing the other 2-1 in May, 2016.

STADIUM STAT

This is only the second PL fixture to be played at five different grounds (Tottenham Hotspur Stadium, WHL, Wembley, St Mary's, The Dell).

CLINICAL KANE

Harry Kane has scored with eight of his 12 shots on target for us against Southampton in the PL, scoring in each of his last five games against them.

TEAM FORM

Spurs:	Southampton:

We go into today's encounter with a matching record in the Premier League – won two, drawn two, lost two. However our two wins have both come at home against Aston Villa (3-1) and Crystal Palace (4-0), so we'll be looking to extend our good home form against Southampton which has seen us win the last three, netting 10 goals in the process.

Southampton sit one point but six places below us in the Premier League table. They too have only won twice, but both came in their last two away games, in which they kept clean sheets against Sheffield United (1-0) and Brighton (2-0). They haven't kept three straight shut-outs on the road since February, 2016.

Flying right-winger Nathan Redmond has become a key man for the Saints since the arrival of Ralph Hassenhuttl, his form proving key in helping the club climb away from the relegation zone last term. He's continued his fine form into the 2019/20 campaign, despite suffering an ankle injury in August. Redmond came through the ranks at Birmingham City and made his first-team debut aged just 16 in a League Cup clash with Rochdale. He represented the Blues in the Europa League before joining Norwich City. Despite relegation from the top flight, Redmond helped them bounce back at the first time of asking, scoring in the 2015 play-off final. He joined Southampton the following year. An England Under-21 regular, he also has two senior caps.

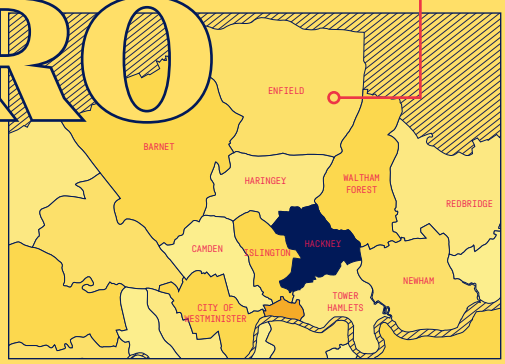
LOCAL HERO

PLAYER NAME:
TONY MARCHI
D.O.B: 21.01.33
POSITION: MIDFIELDER
LEAGUE APPEARANCES: 232
BORN IN: EDMONTON



Looking back on players spotted by Spurs playing locally in schools' football – and who went on to star in our first team. John Fennelly details the career of Tony Marchi.

It may have taken Tony Marchi 57 years before he collected his Championship-winning medal. But the big man was crucial to our Double success as well as that historic Euro win of 1963.

And, providing a link with today's opposition, his winner for our Reserves at Southampton in October 1951 gave him the distinction of being the first player to score a competitive goal under floodlights in England.

The nephew of George Dorling who appeared for us during the last war, Tony was born in Edmonton and played at all levels of schoolboy football, including representing London and England.

He even captained London Boys against their Glasgow counterparts at White Hart Lane in 1949 and was there again for Tottenham Juniors in the London Minor Cup final that same year. So he was always on our radar.

Indeed, he played in our Reserve side at 15 and was an England Youth international when he stepped up to make his Spurs league debut aged 17 against Grimsby Town at the Lane in April 1950. We lost 2-1 but then we didn't win any of our last five games that term as we had already secured the Division Two Championship.

He signed pro that year and would go on to take over the left-half position vacated by the departure of the legendary Ron Burgess. He was appointed Spurs captain during December 1956, then played for England 'B' against Scotland the next year and had even taken over in goal after 13 minutes at Charlton when goalkeeper Ron Reynolds was injured. The match ended 1-1.

So his subsequent move to Italy, the land of his father, came as a major surprise to Tottenham fans when it happened in July 1957.

We received a then club record £35,000 transfer fee from Juventus in 1957 with Tony being paid a £7,000 signing on fee. Those figures at the time made it impossible to turn down.

TH04_38-39_Local Hero.indd 38 25/09/2019 15:09

The irony was that Tony never played for 'The Old Lady'. As they already had their one permitted foreigner on their books, Marchi was loaned out to Lanerossi and then Torino, doing well enough at both to be tipped for Italian international honours. However, the one impediment was that sole England 'B' cap.

Arsenal were interested when he looked to return home, but we possessed first option and new boss Bill Nicholson had no hesitation in bringing him back to the Lane in the summer of 1959. Tony's next job was to somehow replace international duo Danny Blanchflower or Dave Mackay from the Tottenham midfield!

He was good enough to walk into any other Division One side but stayed loyal to Spurs even if his near permanent 'back-up' role was far less than his ability deserved. Yet he never let us down when called upon.

Tony played six league games in our Double winning side of 1961 but didn't receive his deserved recognition in terms of a medal because you needed to register 14 outings to quality at that time. However, when the Club was informed that the rule had been relaxed last year, we quickly made sure that Marchi and teammate Frank Saul received theirs.

Marchi's greatest moment came in the 1963 Cup Winners' Cup Final against Atletico Madid in Rotterdam when he replaced the injured Mackay at short notice and produced an excellent performance in our 5-1 win as we became the first British club to win a major European trophy. He subsequently played for England against Young England.

Tony had already coached the Cambridge University team to a 6-2 win over Oxford in the 1959 Varsity match and returned to that locality as player-manager of Cambridge City when he left us in June 1965. He later took over as manager of Northampton Town.

AWAY MATCH

Graham Roberts was born in Southampton and was on the schoolboy books of both Saints and later Bournemouth but neither took him on. Portsmouth then looked set to offer him a contract, but he broke his ankle and, when he recovered, their interest had cooled.

Originally a forward who later moved into midfield, Robbo's renowned versatility can clearly be understood. But he still had to move into non-league circles before he got the different kind of break that his determination deserved.

Bill Nicholson was on what ultimately turned out to be an unsuccessful scouting mission on the south coast and was standing in the gloom on a deserted railway station when he was recognised and hailed by a man on the opposite platform.

The conversation went something like: "How did it go, Bill?" "Not great." "You should go down to Weymouth and have a look at a player called Roberts." Typically, Bill did – and immediately recommended Graham to manager Keith Burkinshaw who sensibly always trusted Bill Nick's judgement.

Robbo would play for England, help us retain the FA Cup in 1982 and lead Spurs to UEFA Cup glory two years later.

UNDER-18 PREMIER LEAGUE: SOUTHAMPTON 0-2 SPURS

An assertive performance away at Southampton got our Under-18s back to winning ways in the league as we sealed a 2-0 triumph on the south coast last Saturday.

Contrary to what the final scoreline suggests, it was our hosts who had made the better start at Staplewood and twice in the build-up to half-time we were quickly caught on the break, but goalkeeper Kacper Kurylowicz was in top form.

Tarrelle Whittaker then fired us ahead right at the end of the first period, before Kallum Cesay secured the three points with a close-range effort seven minutes after the restart, after Rafferty Pedder had hit the post.

Southampton went close on two occasions late on with audacious efforts from outside the box, both of which crashed off the bar.

Spurs: Kurylowicz, Cesay, Lusala, Matthew Craig (Pedder 23), Fagan-Walcott (Muir 46), Binks (c), Asante, Cooper (Alonso 78), Etete, Robson, Whittaker. Substitutes (not used): Lo-Tutala, Mundle.

ONE POINT FROM UEFA YOUTH LEAGUE OPENER

Our Under-19s kicked-off their UEFA Youth League campaign with a hard-earned 1-1 draw in the heat of Athens against Olympiacos last Wednesday.

With the famous Parthenon temple in the distance, the teams slugged it out at Olympiacos' Training Centre as temperatures touched 32 degrees in the afternoon sun, just hours before the two clubs' senior sides met in the Champions League.

Striker Troy Parrott gave us the perfect start with a clinical finish on 10 minutes after being slid in by Rodel Richards.

But just after the half-hour mark, defender TJ Eyoma under-hit his back-pass and Alexandros Voilis gathered, weighed up his options and squared for Georgios Fekkas to slot home. The pace of the game unsurprisingly dipped in a second half of few chances with Emiliano Bullari rattling the crossbar late on for the home side.

We had twice pegged the visitors back after falling behind either side of half-time, Enock Asante and Chay Cooper with two decent strikes, but when left-back Caiger converted after defender Marqes Muir had blocked substitute Gael Kileba's attempt in the box, there was to be no third reply and the Hammers escaped with a 3-2 victory. FIVE THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT... MAX ROBSON

1. Attacking midfielder Max Robson has been a regular starter for our Under-18s so far in what is his first season as a full-time scholar. Born on 17 October, 2002, he comes from Burgess Hill and attended Birchwood High School in Bishop's Stortford. He first started training with us as a seven-year-old.

2. The first Premier League game he attended was our 3-2 victory at West Ham in February, 2013, when Gareth Bale's long-range stunner secured the points in added time. But, despite being a Spurs supporter, he couldn't celebrate: "My mum and I are Tottenham fans because her dad – my grandad – is a huge Spurs supporter, but my dad and my older brother Jake are West Ham season ticket holders," he explained. "My dad took me to that game, but we were in the West Ham end so I couldn't really cheer! I've got a picture on my phone of me getting Bale's autograph one day when he was at Tottenham. It was at White Hart Lane, he was coming out into the car park, we were behind the gates but he came over and signed my programme."

3. These days, Max likes to watch Dele Alli and Christian Eriksen in training: "They're creative, they like to go forward and that's how I want to play," he said. "I always find you can take note of their body position – they're always checking over their shoulders so they know what's around them. That's a good trait to try to pick up."

4. Max enjoys watching tennis and playing table tennis: "I watch a lot of tennis on TV," he said. "Roger Federer is my favourite – his technique is the best. Endurance-wise, the players are full-on. Some tennis games can seem to last forever so it's about having the stamina and concentration that's needed. I like to play a bit of table tennis at home with my brother and my dad as well. If you watch it on TV, the pro players are mad with the spin they put on the ball!"

5. Away from sport, Max used to have a pet bearded dragon: "At home, we had a vivarium for him to live in. We saved him because he needed a new home. I was in primary school at the time, maybe nine years old. He was called Ronnie. It was my dad's idea!"

PREMIER LEAGUE 2: SPURS 2-2 SOUTHAMPTON

Our Under-23s were held to a 2-2 draw by Southampton in their most recent Premier League 2 home game (13 September), but will look back at missed opportunities as the reason they failed to secure maximum points.

Goals from Dilan Markanday and Harvey White – the latter a sublime free-kick – put us in control in the sunshine at the Training Centre, although the Saints hit back just a minute after our second strike to reduce the deficit courtesy of an unfortunate Jubril Okedina own goal.

We then had good chances to extend our advantage with Rodel Richards, Markanday and Shilow Tracey all spurning opportunities before Kornelius Hansen levelled the scores in the 65th minute.

Despite dominating the closing stages, we couldn't find that elusive winner and had to settle for a point, the second successive Premier League 2 game that we had seen a two-goal lead evaporate into a draw.

Spurs: Whiteman, Okedina, White, Bowden (Hinds 46), Eyoma (c), Dinzeyi, Markanday, Shashoua, Richards, Patterson (Maghoma 64), Tracey (R Clarke 90+1). Substitutes (not used): De Bie, Lyons-Foster.

Southampton: Bycroft, Ramsay, Vokins, Kpohomouh (Ledwidge 83), O'Driscoll, Klarer, Slattery (c), Jankewitz (Chauke 62), Hansen, Defise, Hale (Olaigbe 79). Substitutes (not used): Scott, Freeman.

LADS SUFFER BLACKBURN BLUES

We fell to our first Premier League 2 defeat on the road this season as Blackburn Rovers stormed to a 4-0 win on Monday night.

Three second-half goals did the damage amid rainy conditions in Leyland.

Forward Dominic Samuel opened the scoring on 23 minutes as he tapped in from close range following a corner before he doubled his side's lead 12 minutes after the restart.

Stefan Mols then made it 3-0 on 69 minutes before Samuel completed his hat-trick with seven minutes remaining.

Blackburn: Hilton, Doyle, Thompson, Davenport, Barnes, Grayson (c), Mols, Lyons, Samuel, Vale, Rankin-Costello. Substitutes (not used): Eastham, White, Whitehall, Brennan, Boyomo.

Spurs: Austin, Hinds, White, Bowden (c), Dinzeyi (Okedina 75), Lyons-Foster, Markanday, Maghoma, Patterson (Pochettino 68), Oakley-Boothe, Tracey. Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, Eyoma.

ROLES GETS HIS GOAL

On-loan midfielder Jack Roles bagged his first senior goal for Cambridge United in their 4-0 win at Mansfield Town on 17 September.

A regular scorer for us at Under-18 and Under-23 levels in recent years, the 20-year-old stepped off the bench on 71 minutes and broke the deadlock just three minutes later against Cambridge's 10-man hosts. It proved to be the catalyst for his side to go on and rack up a 4-0 victory in League Two.

:42 TH04_44-47_Development Squad.indd 45 25/09/2019 15:40

The goal came in Jack's sixth appearance of the season for Cambridge, who are managed by our former defender Colin Calderwood. Jack subsequently started in last weekend's 1-0 home defeat by Swindon Town.

MARSH ON THE ORIENT EXPRESS

George Marsh has enjoyed a run of starts for League Two side Leyton Orient in recent weeks.

The 20-year-old midfielder, who picked up some match minutes with our first team during pre-season, linked up with the O's on loan in August and, after being an unused substitute for his first few games, produced an eye-catching display during his side's 2-0 Leasing.com Trophy win over Southend United at the start of this month.

That led to him being handed his first league start in Orient's 2-2 draw at Exeter a fortnight ago and, since then, he's retained his place in the starting line-up for tough battles with Crewe Alexandra and Colchester United, both of which ended 2-1 to Orient's opponents.

THE EX FILES

Profiling former Academy players who made the grade as a pro after leaving our youth set-up…

LEE BARNARD

Lee Barnard was a regular name on the scoresheet for our youth and reserve teams during his time with us, but it was away from the Lane that he made his mark.

The striker joined our Academy in July, 2000, and turned professional two years later with his senior debut coming during a loan spell at Exeter City, starting in their 3-0 Division Three win at Boston United on 2 November, 2002. Further short loans followed with Stevenage, Leyton Orient and Northampton before making his Spurs debut from the bench in a 2-1 home defeat to Manchester United in April, 2006. He also featured as a substitute in the closing weeks of that season against Bolton and West Ham United.

His first league goal came on loan with Crewe Alexandra, netting in his first appearance as they beat Huddersfield Town in League One, before Lee left us permanently to join Southend United in January, 2008. He scored 37 goals in 85 appearances in two years at Roots Hall, leaving to join Southampton where he netted 23 goals in 63 league games and spent time on loan with Bournemouth, Oldham Athletic and a return to Southend during four years on the south coast.

After a year with the Shrimpers, he spent the 2015-16 season with League Two side Crawley Town before moving into non-league football with Braintree Town, Chelmsford City and most recently, Maldon and Tiptree.

FURNESS FIRES WOMEN TO FIRST WSL VICTORY

Rachel Furness secured our first victory in the Barclays FA Women's Super League (WSL) as we defeated Liverpool 1-0 on our home debut at The Hive on Sunday 15 September.

Furness, who arrived on loan from Reading on transfer deadline day, scored a penalty just before half-time to secure three points in our second game in the WSL.

Liverpool were down to 10 players in the second half after Niamh Fahey was shown a red card for fouling Rosella Ayane as she raced through on goal.

Head Coaches Karen Hills and Juan Amoros made three changes to the team that lost 1-0 on the opening day at Chelsea with Anna Filbey, Chloe Peplow and Ayane in the starting line-up against the Reds.

Peplow and Ayane made their full competitive debuts for Spurs and Ria Percival captained the side for the first time with Club captain Jenna Schillaci named on the substitutes' bench.

Ashleigh Neville had a lively display at right-back and her drilled ball into the box in the opening six minutes was deflected behind for a corner, before Ayane fired just wide from the resulting set piece. Furness tested Anke Preuss from distance twice in the first half, forcing a flying save from the Liverpool keeper on one occasion, with her other attempt flashing wide.

Moments before the interval, Becky Jane bundled Furness down in the penalty area, before the Northern Ireland international stepped up to slot the spot-kick calmly into the bottom right corner and write her name into the history books as our first ever goalscorer in the WSL.

TH04_48-51_Spurs Ladies v2.indd 49 25/09/2019 15:34

Ashleigh Neville tussles for possession against the Reds

After the break, Preuss was called into action for the visitors to stop a fierce strike from Gemma Davison, before Peplow fired wide from the resulting corner-kick.

Four minutes later, Vicky Jepson's side were down to 10 when the referee showed Fahey a red card as she bundled down Ayane, who was in on goal. We continued to control the game thereafter to put our first top-flight points on the board in the scorching sunshine.

"Across the two league games, I think we've done exceptionally well," Karen said. "We put in a performance we can really be proud of in the opening game (against Chelsea) and then to get three points in our second game at home is outstanding. It gives the players, staff and hopefully the fans a lot of confidence in the process and hopefully the journey will continue to be positive.

Juan added: "I think that our players really dominated the game - both on and off the ball. There's been a lot of hard work behind the scenes and the players have showed that they are up for the challenge. We prepare for every game like it's a final – we did that with Chelsea but unfortunately didn't win, we did that against Liverpool and this time we came out on top with three points. I think the players can be extremely proud of their performances, not only the 14 players who were involved against Liverpool, but everyone in the squad because it's a team effort."

Spurs: Spencer, Neville, Godfrey, Filbey, Worm (Green 61), Percival (c), Peplow, Davison, Ayane (Dean 88), Furness, Graham (Quinn 73). Substitutes (not used): Morgan, Schillaci, Wynne, Haines.

Liverpool: Preuss, Robe, Fahey, Bradley-Aukland, Clarke (Hodson 78), Bailey, Sweetman-Kirk, Lawley, Charles (Babajide 58), Rodgers (Purfield 66), Jane. Substitutes (not used): Kitching, Linnett.

WOMEN SUFFER DEFEAT TO ROYALS IN CONTI CUP

Captain Jenna Schillaci admitted that our performance was "nowhere near where it should be" in the 4-0 defeat to Reading in the Continental League Cup (Group D) last Sunday.

Despite having some great early chances to take the lead, we found ourselves trailing the Royals 1-0 in the first half, before three more goals followed for the visitors in a matter of eight minutes following the interval.

Jenna was one of three changes made to the side who were victorious against Liverpool in the WSL and our skipper couldn't help but express her disappointment to lose in a game where we were punished for not taking our chances.

"It was obviously a disappointing result for us, we knew it was going to be a tough challenge against Reading, who are a well-established team in the league with many threats," Jenna said following our first defeat at The Hive.

"I think in the first half we played quite well and created lots of chances, but we just didn't take them, we just weren't clinical enough in front of goal.

"Straight into the second half, a mistake from us didn't help and then an own goal followed that, which killed the game. It's disappointing and we'll obviously reflect on the performance - the standards today were nowhere near where they should be."

Our next challenge is an away trip to West Ham at the London Stadium tomorrow (29 September) and Jenna is hopeful that the team will return to our high standards against the Hammers in the WSL clash.

"I think we're all quite self-critical so we'll definitely all go away and all look at the performance and make sure we learn from our mistakes," Jenna continued.

"There were positives and had we taken one of our chances, it could have been a different game. We know we have to do better, especially with the great quality we have in this team so it's important for us to get back to our high standards, ready for our next game."

Kick-off against West Ham is 2.30pm at the London Stadium, with the game broadcast live on BT Sport.

Spurs: Spencer, Neville, Godfrey, Schillaci (c), Leon (Worm 49), Peplow, Green, Percival (Haines 60), Graham, Davison (Dean 63), Ayane. Substitutes (not used): Morgan, Filbey, Addison, Quinn.

Reading: Moloney, Leine, Williams, James, Eikeland, Harding (Pacheco 76), Farrow (Honnudottir 59), Moore (Allen 68), Chaplen, Rowe, Howard. Substitute (not used): Skeels.

STEVE'S SPECIAL MEMORIES

BY PAUL MILES

Scoring against Crystal Palace at the Lane in 1971

It was 50 years yesterday that a young midfielder – aged just 17 years and 280 days in fact – made his debut for Spurs.

A 1-0 home defeat against Sunderland may not exactly have people scrambling around for memorabilia or records of that day, but 27 September 1969 was the start of something special. Club record appearance-making special. Most trophies won by a Spurs player and over 550 games as captain special.

Steve Perryman detailed his thoughts to us on the 40-year anniversary of his debut, back in 2009. He remembered how the team had just come off a 5-0 loss at Derby County and Bill Nicholson called both him and Dennis Bond into his office on the Friday.

The outcome - one or both of them would play against Sunderland. "I assumed that was going to be Dennis, a player the club had purchased, but I hoped it would be both of us," recalled Steve back then.

"We got to the game, he named the team and I was in, so was Dennis. It was a great honour and a great feeling. It was a chance to get into the team early and at Spurs that was quite a rarity at such a young age.

"I remember it was a big crowd, a sunny day. The debut is the starting place of something good, you hope, and you just want the people who are paying the money to think well of you."

It's safe to say that was the case – and certainly the case of the man that mattered, Bill Nick, who played Steve a total of 28 times in the old First Division and FA Cup that debut season, 1969/70. Three years on from his debut, Steve captained the team for the first time. He'd already won his first medal – the League Cup in 1971 – and was on his way to lifting the UEFA Cup.

Ten years have flown by since that chat in 2009. Steve, 67, is now an associate director at MK Dons and as we spoke earlier this week, he was preparing to face European champions Liverpool in the Carabao Cup.

What did he think now on the 50-year anniversary of his debut?

"I think of me in Bill Nicholson's office as a 21-year-old, knocking on his door asking for a new contract," he said. "The nature of Bill Nick and that era was his response 'how many people do you think come to watch you play?', quite a stark question!

"I roomed with Alan Gilzean and I know I shouldn't have really known what he was earning, but I did, I'd → been in the team for three years and I thought I needed to be a bit closer to them. In hindsight, my answer should have been 'how much would our opponents pay not to have to play against me?', judge me by what my opponents thought of me, not necessarily who bought a ticket.

"I can't believe anyone ever bought a ticket to watch me play. I don't mind that, because that's me being realistic. But I helped the players who people did pay money to see, like Glenn Hoddle, Ossie Ardiles, Pat Jennings, Alan Gilzean.

"I always say about our team of the 1980s that Glenn was the leader of the orchestra. That might seem strange coming from the captain, but he was the leader in the way that he played, and we followed his lead. I'm not embarrassed to say that. I got the rest of the orchestra there on time. That's putting it into perspective.

"I guess the supporters sort of linked into me. If they could see themselves on the pitch, they couldn't really see themselves as Glenn Hoddle, that is something extra special. But they could see themselves as me, working hard, doing the running, the graft, putting my foot in, 'beat me but over my dead body', that sort of attitude.

"I was consistent, selectable, very rarely got injured and that, and I know from experience of being a manager, is gold dust.

"I've still got the letter from Bill Nick to my dad, and this is 'Mr Tottenham', writing to the father of a 15-year-old boy, saying, 'I would never have been so happy for a lad to join us if Steve decides to join us'. That's not Jimmy Greaves or Pat Jennings, and that's how he made me feel – apart from when it came to money! That letter ended up being to the parent of the son who played the most games and won the most trophies for Tottenham Hotspur. That's not bad, is it?"

FACTFILE

Steve played 854 competitive games for the Club and made over 1,000 first-team appearances between 1969-1986.

He is our record appearance holder in the Football League (655), FA Cup (69), Football League Cup (66) and European competition (64).

He won more honours for Spurs than any other player - League Cup winner in 1971 and 1973, UEFA Cup winner in 1972 and captain of successive FA Cup Final wins in 1981 and 1982. He was also captain of the 1984 UEFA Cup winning side but had to sit out the second leg through suspension.

Footballer of the Year in 1982.

Part of England's 40-man World Cup squad in 1982, but only won one senior cap against Iceland in June, 1982.

Steve made his last senior appearance in our colours on 4 March, 1986 in a home FA Cup tie with Everton.

He was awarded the MBE in 1986.

Steve scored at least one League goal in 17 consecutive seasons. His first was on Boxing Day, 1969 versus Crystal Palace and his last against West Ham United, also on Boxing Day, 1985.

He played in every one of our FA Cup matches between January, 1970 and March, 1986, a run of 69 games.

FA Cup success in 1981 as Steve lifts the trophy with Ossie Ardiles

AT THE BACK POST

What does the name Southampton stir in the memory of club historian John Fennelly? We find out.

1 JACK ELKES

The versatile Jack Elkes had an eventful time in his early days at Southampton. He scored two goals on his debut following his 1922 move from Birmingham – and then broke his collarbone in the next game and missed the rest of the season!

Once recovered he became a Saints regular and joined us in May, 1923. A six footer, he could play equally well in attack or defence.

He was unfortunate not to play for England but appeared in representative games, including the 1925 Charity Shield when the Professionals lost 6-1 to the Amateurs at White Hart Lane. Winger Walter Bellamy, then of Dulwich Hamlet, was on the winning side that day and so impressed that we signed him.

2 TAFFY O'CALLAGHAN

Ahead of promotion from Division Two in season 1932-33, we enjoyed some excellent high-scoring results on our way to finishing runners-up to Stoke City at the top of the final table.

One came at the Lane in the October when Taffy O'Callaghan scored a hat-trick against Saints in a 5-0 triumph. George Hunt and Willie Evans also netted.

The March return ended 1-1. Hunt and Bill Adams shared the goals.

After finishing third in our first season in the top flight we were then relegated as the division's bottom club the following year!

Later that year, at the Football League AGM we proposed putting numbers on shirts but the motion was rejected. It was made mandatory six years later.

3 MARTIN CHIVERS

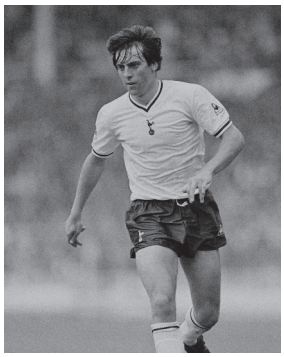
Wimhurst was signed by Saints boss Ted Bates while doing his National Service on Salisbury Plain while Hollywood had a trial with Spurs as a schoolboy but opted to join the Southampton apprentice ranks.

Chivers, who was born in the city, enjoyed a different form of apprenticeship – playing alongside wonderful Wales international centre-forward Ron Davies in the club's promotion-winning side of 1967, joining us the following January.

TH04_60-61_At the Back Post.indd 60 26/09/2019 12:55

4 TONY GALVIN



The Republic of Ireland winger scored a hat-trick against Southampton in our final game of the season at the Lane in May, 1986.

Galvin's trio came after Chris Waddle and Danny Wallace had exchanged goals. Saints hit back through a Gary Mabbutt own goal and Craig Maskell before Clive Allen made it 5-3.

It was our fourth meeting with Southampton in that campaign as we also contested the Screensport Super Cup, devised to take the place of the European matches our domestic teams missed out on in the wake of the Heysel disaster.

We won both games but lost by David Puckett's goal at the Dell in the league in November.

5 ALF RAMSEY

Alf Ramsey, who brought great pride to both clubs as England's only World Cup winning manager, gained his first international cap as a Spurs player against Italy at White Hart Lane in 1949. He had joined us from Saints just months before.

His footballing breakthrough came during the war when his battalion played two games against Southampton and Alf impressed at centre-half – despite losing the first game 10-1! Saints took him on and converted him to right-back.

6 JOHN DUNCAN

I can still remember every minute of our tense Division Two meeting at the Dell in April, 1978, as I relentlessly paced the press box to the annoyance of all my fellow reporters while the clock ticked down agonisingly slowly before our promotion back to Division One was confirmed.

We needed a point and our hopes were on top scorer John Duncan. But the best chances fell to Saints in the 0-0 draw, allowing us to go up ahead of Brighton on goals.

7 RONNY ROSENTHAL

Think lights, FA Cup replays, a substitute going on to score a hat-trick and you think – Ronny Rosenthal!

The Rocket's moment came at the Dell in February, 1995, after our initial fourth round tie had ended 1-1- Jurgen Klinsmann and Matthew Le Tissier (penalty) on target.

Saints then took a two goal first half lead in the return through Neil Shipperley and another Le Tissier pen but a brace in two minutes from Ron sent the game into extra time. He then completed the first ever hat-trick by a Spurs sub in a competitive game ahead of further strikes from Teddy Sheringham, Nick Barmby and Darren Anderton making it 6-2.

We won 2-1 at Liverpool but went down 4-1 in our semi against Everton at Elland Road. Southampton beat us home and away in the league that season.

8 DEAN RICHARDS

It is always welcome to have the opportunity to salute the memory of Deano who was a great favourite of fans at both clubs. The powerful central defender, who was born in Bradford, joined us from Saints in September, 2001, and was not just a wonderful player but also a top man. Losing him to illness at the age of 36 was nothing short of tragic but he lives on in our collective hearts.

WELCOME

A warm welcome to the following Spurs fans

Shaun and Demi Cannon, who are at today's game. Shaun has supported Spurs his whole life and is looking forward to experiencing the atmosphere at our new stadium.

Thirty-one years after his father took young Oystein Haugen from Trondheim to see his first Spurs game in 1988, Oystein returns the favour this afternoon, bringing his father, Inga and his four children over from Norway to experience the new stadium.

Azizi Meor Ngah and Ally Azizi, who are the game this afternoon for their first visit to the stadium and are excited to be here.

Three-year-old Ellis Kingcombe, who is attending his first-ever Spurs game today and is here with mum Peppar and dad Ryan, who are watching their first match at the new stadium this afternoon.

Zachary Peck, aged eight, from Creekmoor, Poole in Dorset, who is excited to be making his first visit to the new stadium today.

CONGRATULATIONS

Many congratulations to these Spurs supporters:

Congratulations to season ticket holder Ben Hoare on his recent marriage to Deborah Parsons at St Paul's.

NEW ADDITIONS

Welcoming some young Spurs supporters

This is Jasper Carlton who arrived on 11 March and joins a proud family of Spurs fans. No doubt he'll be a future season ticket holder like his father and grandfather!

Harry Apple was born on 8 August, the latest member of the Apple family to support Spurs all the way back to his great-grandfather Charles in 1922! Dad Robert is a season ticket holder.

Lucas Martin Sheehan was born on 20 August, much to the delight of proud parents Gary and Theresa and grandparents Gerard and Valerie, who are all big Spurs fans from Ireland.

North Stand season ticket holder Paul Kottaun is delighted to introduce his twin grandsons Leo and Joe, born on 20 August to proud parents Anna and Lewis.

Season ticket holder Paul Coleman would like to introduce a new Spurs fan - his granddaughter Freya McGowan, who was born on 26 July. Her dad Josh McGowan is an avid Spurs supporter!

Proud South Stand season ticket holders Rob and Sally Gill are besotted with their first grandchild, Harry James Lennon, born on 30 April to Spurs member Catherine and her husband Chris

OBITUARIES

We were sorry to hear of the passing of the following Spurs supporters:

Kevin Crowley, a lifelong fan from Clonakilty, County Cork in Ireland, who passed away recently just before his 50th birthday. A founder member of the Clonakilty Supporters' Club, he always looked forward to his visits to White Hart Lane and was the life and soul of the trips. His sense of fun and his generosity will be missed by all. He will be sadly missed by his partner Bernadette, daughters Nicola and Rebecca and his Spurs 'family' in Clonakilty.

Barry Steven Perrett, a lifelong fan who passed away at the age of 59 on 10 September. He was always proud to wear the cockerel on his chest and the club gave him so many happy memories. He will be deeply missed by his loving wife Marny and all his family and friends.

We would like to extend our condolences to their famillies and friends at this sad time.

SKIPPY WELCOMES CHILDREN BACK TO SCHOOL

Oliver Skipp visited Ferry Lane Primary School in Tottenham recently to join a Premier League Primary Stars lesson and encourage the children to get active on their return from the summer holidays.

Skipp, who has recently completed his A-Levels, helped staff from Tottenham Hotspur Foundation deliver a classroom lesson and football session for a Year 4 class as part of the Premier League Primary Stars programme the Club runs in local schools across Haringey.

The children welcomed Oliver, who turned 19 on the day of his visit, into their school by singing Happy Birthday to him and presenting him with handmade birthday cards and a cake.

Club staff spend one day a week in schools across the Club's local community delivering Premier League Primary Stars which provides PE support to teachers to help them feel more confident and gain an increased knowledge in delivering quality physical activity and sport lessons.

Since August 2016, the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation has inspired over 4,700 children in schools across North London and Hertfordshire to learn through the Premier League Primary Stars programme, working with over 230 teachers.

Oliver said: "Studying for exams while playing professional football is not always easy. It takes a huge amount of determination and commitment, however if you put your mind to something you can achieve anything you want. It's important that children have access to quality education and regular sport within the school gates, so it's great to see Tottenham Hotspur Foundation giving back to the local community to make it easier for local children to access sport."

Lisa Rawashdeh, Head Teacher at Ferry Lane Primary School, added: "It's been fantastic welcoming Oliver to our school today. The children have loved having the opportunity to ask him questions about his life as a professional footballer and how he balances his studying with his playing commitments. We are delighted to be working with Tottenham Hotspur Foundation this academic year and I know both children and teachers will find their sessions invaluable."

LEDLEY'S DAY OUT

Club Ambassador Ledley King spent the afternoon in the community on Wednesday, visiting pupils at a local secondary school and an elderly fan at a care home.

Our former skipper was out and about in Colchester, first paying a visit to Paxman Academy Secondary School where he spoke to pupils and staff about his career and what he did at school to help him achieve his dreams on and off the football pitch. He also met the school football team who asked him questions about progressing through the ranks at Spurs and what it was like representing his country.

Drew Nash, teacher at Paxman Academy Secondary School said: "Having someone of Ledley's calibre visit our school has been a fantastic experience for our students and I hope it will inspire them to keep working hard and achieve their dreams."

Ledley also travelled to Milton Lodge Care Home where he surprised 86-year-old Spurs fan Dick. Dick moved into the care home in 2017 with his wife. Sadly, she passed away a year later, and since then, Dick has been struggling to come to terms with life without her. Ledley presented Dick, who has been a Spurs fan all his life, with a personalised shirt and spent time talking to him about his memories of the Club.

Kate Perkins, Deputy Manager at Milton Lodge Care Home said: "Since Dick's wife passed away, his mood has been very low and it's been difficult to get him to engage in anything. Through our 'Sparkle Initiative' we try to make our residents dreams come true, so when we heard Spurs were coming to town, we knew we had to try do something to brighten Dick's day. It's been brilliant to see Dick smiling again – meeting Ledley has given him the lift he was in desperate need of."

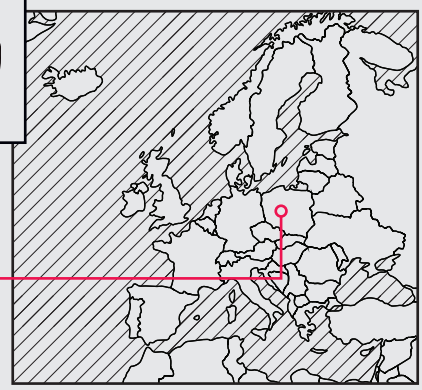
EURO ZONE



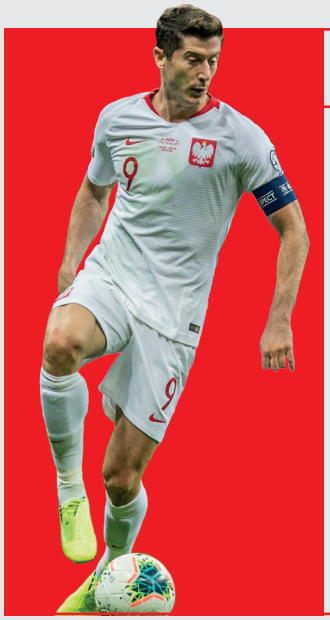
POLAND
Capital: Warsaw
Language: Polish

Ahead of UEFA Euro 2020, Andy Greeves offers the lowdown on various nations hoping to appear at the European Championships as it celebrates its 60th anniversary. Today he takes a look at Jerzy Brzeczek's Poland.

FORM GUIDE

Poland top UEFA Euro 2020 qualifying Group G after six rounds of fixtures. Jerzy Brzeczek's side started the campaign with a 1-0 win in Austria on 21 March this year before beating Latvia 2-0 in Warsaw three days later. AC Milan's Krzysztof Piatek got the only goal of the game in the Eagles' victory in North Macedonia on 7 June while he was on target once again in a 4-0 home triumph over Israel on June 10 in a match that also saw Robert Lewandowski, Kamil Grosicki and Damian Kadzior net.

Poland's first defeat in their group came on 6 September as they went down to a 2-0 away defeat to Slovenia before their goalless draw with Austria in Warsaw three days later. Southampton's Jan Bednarek has featured in five of Poland's six Euro 2020 qualifiers to date and has won 17 caps for his country overall.



KEY PLAYER

Poland skipper Robert Lewandowski is his country's top all-time goal scorer, having netted 57 times for the Eagles. He is also their joint top appearance maker, featuring in 108 matches to date – the same number as winger Jakub Blaszczykowski.

Lewandowski is one of the leading marksmen in European football. After spells with Znicz Pruszkow and Lech Poznan early in his career, the 6ft 1in striker scored 103 times in 187 appearances for Borussia Dortmund between 2010 and 2014. Having won two Bundesliga titles and the DFB Pokal with Dortmund, he moved to rivals Bayern Munich, for whom he has collected five further league winners' medals with. He has been the Bundesliga's top scorer for the past two seasons – and four times overall – and is likely to lead the line for Bayern in our Champions League clash here on Tuesday.

SPURS CONNECTION

Our first-ever competitive European fixture took us to Poland for a European Cup preliminary round, first leg fixture against Gornik Zabrze on 13 September, 1961. In front of a crowd of around 70,000 at the Stadion Slaski in Chorzow, we trailed 4-0 in the match before goals from Cliff Jones and Terry Dyson reduced our arrears.

In the second leg at White Hart Lane the following week, Bill Nicholson's side produced a performance that Clive Toye of the Daily Express described as a "savage destruction" of our Polish opponents. A penalty from Danny Blanchflower, a strike from Bobby Smith and a Jones hat-trick put us 5-1 up at half-time, with Earnest Pohl on target for the visitors. Smith struck again in the second-half, while Dyson and John White also found the back of the net to complete an 8-1 triumph and a 10-5 aggregate success.

We started our 2007/08 UEFA Cup campaign with a first round fixture against Wisla Krakow. Strikes from David Bentley and Darren Bent saw us win 2-1 in the first leg at the Lane on 18 September, 2007 while Tomas Jirsak scored for Wisla. Arkadiusz Glowacki put through his own net to increase our overall advantage in the second leg and while Pawel Brozek equalised on the night, we progressed to the next round 3-2 on aggregate.

Former Polish international Grzegorz Rasiak made nine appearances for us between 2005 and 2006 having signed from Derby County. The striker was loaned to Southampton in February 2006, for whom he scored four goals in 13 appearances. His move to St Mary's was made permanent during the summer of 2006, with the Szczecin-born frontman going on to net a further 29 times in 74 matches for Saints prior to his departure to Reading in 2009. Rasiak also spent loan spells with Bolton Wanderers and Watford during his time in English football. He retired in 2014 having scored eight goals in 37 matches for Poland between 2002 and 2007.

EURO HISTORY

Poland's first appearance at the UEFA European Championships came in 2008 as they finished bottom of a group containing Croatia, Germany and tournament co-hosts Austria. Their only point at UEFA Euro 2008 came following a 1-1 draw with Austria in Vienna on June 12 that year.

The Eagles hosted UEFA Euro 2012 along with Ukraine. Alas, they failed to advance beyond the group stage after draws with Greece and Russia and a defeat to the Czech Republic on home soil saw them eliminated.

Poland's best display at the European Championships to date came four years ago. Victories over Northern Ireland and Ukraine and a goalless draw with Germany saw them finish second in Group C as they progressed to the knockout phase for the first time. A penalty shootout victory over Switzerland, following a 1-1 draw after extra-time in Saint-Etienne, saw their journey continue. Alas, a 5-3 spot-kick defeat to eventual tournament winners Portugal saw them knocked out in the quarter finals.

SPURS RESPECTS

We are justly proud of our superb and loyal support, home and away. We all have a responsibility to act as ambassadors of Tottenham Hotspur Football Club. And act as considerate neighbours to those who live and work in the area around the stadium.

If you witness any form of anti-social abusive or discriminatory behaviour, homophobic language, crime, vandalism, violence, the use of smoke bombs or pyrotechnics close to you at any of our matches, please send a text to 07537 404821 along with your location (block/row/seat) and the location of the offence (block/row/seat).

Text 07537 404821 with – FOUL (language and behaviour); RACISM (racist chanting & shouting); HPH (homophobic chanting); DRINK (drinking alcohol in view of the pitch); SMOKE (smoking in the stadium); STAND (standing up); PYRO (use of or intended use of any pyrotechnics or smoke bomb).

SMOKING

There is no smoking or use of e-cigarettes permitted anywhere across the stadium campus.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED

Please remain in your seats during play to ensure that the view is not obstructed for other spectators.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION

In the unlikely event that we should have to evacuate the stadium, please adhere to the advice given by front line staff and on our public address system.

Continuing our new Q&A feature for the new season – using the year of the Club's formation as inspiration – as we ask our players to choose 18 lifestyle questions from a selection of 82. Next up it's the turn of our England international midfielder Harry Winks…

1. Who would you most like to meet?

Winksy: "I'd say Kobe Bryant (former NBA star). I've watched a lot of videos on him. I've met him, but not properly and he just seems like someone who has so much intelligence and life experience and someone who has played at the pinnacle of his sport."

2. You have a rare day off – what is your perfect day?

Winksy: "First of all, a lay in! Then head into London with a few mates, hopefully nice weather, walk around London, go to a few nice restaurants, have a coffee, maybe do a bit of shopping."

3. If you could go back in time, where would you go?

Winksy: "I'd go back to day one – the big bang – and see how the world was created."

4. Who would you like to sing a duet with?

Winksy: "If I could sing, I wouldn't mind a duet with Ariana Grande."

5. How do you like your eggs?

Winksy: "Poached, with a runny yolk."

TH04_80-81_Q&A Harry Winks.indd 80 26/09/2019 12:54

6. Did you ever have a job outside of football?

Winksy: "No, I was straight into football, I didn't really have the time for anything else."

7. What keeps you going through the bad times?

Winksy: "Memories of the good times and getting back to them."

8. What sort of father do you think you will be?

Winksy: "Strict, but very loving – and I'd be getting a football out early!"

9. What is your favourite photograph?

Winksy: "It's a photo of me, my mum and my dad at White Hart Lane after I scored against West Ham on my Premier League debut."

10. What reminds you of home?

Winksy: "Chicken soup! My mum used to make it."

11. What would be your fancy dress costume?

Winksy: "A character out of Peaky Blinders."

12. Tell us a secret…

Winksy: "I can't as it wouldn't be a secret!"

13. What is the first thing you normally do in the morning?

Winksy: "Moan – because I want to go back to sleep!"

14. Did you ever appear in a school play?

Winksy: "Yes, I was in Henry VIII when I was young. I can't remember the role I played, but it wasn't Henry VIII. I didn't get the main job."

15. When was the last time you cried?

Winksy: "Wow… I wouldn't know. It was probably years ago. I do remember one occasion, I was watching Godzilla when I was young. He died and I cried."

16. Describe your worst-ever hairstyle…

Winksy: "I had a Mohican. I copied David Beckham. It didn't go down well."

17. What are you always asked in interviews?

Winksy: "What's it like playing for Tottenham when you support the club? And as I always say - it's a dream come true."

18. What is your favourite sandwich?

Winksy: "Chicken, with mayonnaise and lettuce."
